A CARD.

I desire to express through the columns of the REGISTER my gratitude to the members of the Masonic fraternity and a few other particular friends for the delicacies furnished, but more especially for their cheering visits during my recent illness.

SAMUEL BROOKS.

Middlebury, Feb. 1, 1886.

A CARD.

Please allow us through the columns of your paper to express our heartfelt thanks to the many, many friends who were so kind to us in our recent bereavement, and to those who so beautifully lined the little grave with evergreen; to those who so tenderly laid the little tired body in its last resting place; and to the singers who sang so sweetly those comforting words; to our pastor who by his words of consolation dried the falling tears, helping us to look beyond the little casket to the "home prepared," the Christian home. May our Father in heaven reward them all.

MR. AND MRS. E. G. SEELEY.
MR. AND MRS. J. W. HALLADY.
S. S. BENTON.LOCAL NEWS.

Orlando Wooster of Rutland was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burroughs are the happy parents of a fine girl.

Mrs. T. Boardman of Brandon has lately visited at John B. Foote's.

Gens. Wm. Y. W. and Edward H. Ripley of Rutland were registered at the Addison House Friday evening.

The price of butter in this market Monday was from ten to twenty cents. A good article is hard to get.

J. B. Cherlino has lately sold several sheep to a Central American man, A. Gonzales of Costa Rica.

Miss Dora Moore returned home Friday evening from a six-weeks' visit to friends in Jackson, Mich.

Mrs. S. J. Preston of Mammaroneck, N.Y., who has been on a visit here since the holidays, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. E. C. Ells and Robert Ells have returned to town after having been at Waterloo, P. Q., for a number of weeks.

During last month the thermometer got below zero here on 11 days; in January, 1884, 16 days; 1883, 13 days; 1882, 6 days, and in 1881, 18 days.

It is not often that Vermonters experience a more severe morning than that of yesterday, when the thermometer stood from 15 to 20 below zero, and the wind blew a gale from the north.

Col. T. M. Chapman and family will sail from New York on Tuesday next for the Bermudas. Their original plan was to go to Florida and stay till spring, but they finally decided upon this trip.

The lane from North Pleasant street to Seymour street has been designated by the village trustees for coasting purposes.

It is in excellent condition and is thoroughly used.

The subject of the lecture which Rev. Joseph Cook will give here on the evening of the 19th inst. is, "Does Death End All?" This is considered the best of his lectures, and ought to be of special interest just at this time.

Judge Knapp represented the Congregational church at the council called by the College-street Congregational church of Burlington on Tuesday to install Rev. Chas. F. Carter, late of Manchester, N.H., as its pastor.

Henry E. Bissell, son of E. N. Bissell of East Shoreham, who has been in the office of the Vermont Merino Sheep Breeders' association for several months past, succeeds A. T. Stapleton as clerk in the postoffice.

The third annual dance of Fairmount Engine Co., No. 3, comes off at the town hall on Wednesday evening of next week. Supper will be had at the Addison House; music, the Middlebury orchestra of six pieces. Spectators' tickets, admitting to the gallery, will be sold at 25 cents.

Letters addressed to these persons have remained in the postoffice one month un-called for; Mrs. Almira Burnap, Miss Holt, Miss E. A. Hubard, Miss Clarina Finney, W. B. Rich, James Smillie, Miss Annie Trudo, E. L. Tyrrell, Miss Etta Wood.

Those who have wood to saw or other odd jobs that they wish done are asked to notify Overseer of the Poor, O. F. Comstock. Work of this kind is scarce, and many men who would be glad to do it and thus keep from asking town aid, are not able to find employment.

F. J. Speyer, who has just returned from Michigan, is visiting at his father's in this place. He intends going to Kansas to superintend track-laying for Geo. F. Harris with his patent track layer, which occupation he has followed the last few years both in the United States and Canada.

The REGISTER is a few hours late this week, but the delay could not be avoided. It was caused by the press, which, like every other piece of new machinery, required the expenditure of considerable time and patience before it would do its work perfectly. It is all right now, we hope.

The small boys of the village have gotten into the habit this winter of jumping upon sleighs and catching rides. It would be well for them to remember that there is a village ordinance that provides a penalty for just this thing and the authorities may see fit to put the law in force.

Josie M. Benton, the niece and adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Seeley, died on Friday last at the residence of John W. Holladay, of typhoid fever. She was a niece of Mrs. Holladay. The funeral was attended on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Speare officiating. The deceased was eleven years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bliss have removed from Rochester to this village and occupy rooms at U. D. Twitchell's. Mr. Bliss has assisted in editing the REGISTER's horse department for the past year, and comes here that he may do the work to better advantage. He will also continue in the practice of the law. His office will be with A. P. Tupper, Esq.

Hon. John W. Stewart came home from Washington on Friday and returned there Wednesday. A part of his business in Vermont was to argue before the Rutland County Supreme court the case of Solon Breske of Sudbury against the executor of the late Whitfield Walker's estate. The construction of a complicated will is what puzzles the lawyers in this now somewhat protracted litigation.

Rev. B. F. Mills of West Rutland, who has conducted the series of union meetings held at the Congregational church the past three weeks, returned home yesterday morning. Union services were

NOTICE TO DAIRYMEN.

I receive sufficient encouragement I propose to establish a creamery in Middlebury of 500 cows, and cream of 2,300 to 3,000 cows, and I will make the following propositions to the dairy-men of this and adjoining towns.

First: For all who will adopt the Conley system and remain with me, and pay me $100 and a sum to gather the cream, once a day, Sundays excepted, provided there are enough who will do so, on any road, to make a route for that purpose. And I will manufacture the butter after the expense of gathering, it is proposed to market the butter at 25 cents per lb.

Second: At any locality where the dairy-men wish to do so, they can organize a company and at some central point set their milk and raise cream and deliver the cream at my factory, and I will manufacture all ready for market in 50 lb. tubs, for 25 cents per pound. In this way they will save the large expense of a building, utensils and the salary of an experienced butter maker. The expense of such a proposition for 200 cows all day for operation, except the building, ought not to cost over $400, and the patrons will own it themselves.

Third: All those who prefer to send the whole milk to the creamery twice a day, except Saturday, will buy it at 25 cents per tub, and I will collect the same at 15¢ of each month. The whole milk can be collected twice a day on a direct road, at a distance of 6 or 7 miles, where there are from 100 to 130 cows, and the cost of collecting two cows a day, above the expense of all those who furnish the whole milk, will be subject to the regulations of the creamery, in regard to the time of doing their milking, as the days grow shorter later in the season on all roads on which there are no dairy-men, and their milk, on application to me, I will tell them how much I will collect it from each patron for during the season, from June 1 to Dec. 1. The expense is based on the number of cows, and the cost of labor, and those who wish to deliver their milk but come early for all until bought to be made the first of each month.

Eighth: Any parties wishing to send their cream or milk to the creamery, will please notify me not later than Feb. 20, so that I can make the necessary arrangements.

There are no cows owned or pledged by that time to warrant me in building a creamery.

will not be done.

THE Farm in the southeast part of the town of Shoreham, of late the home place of William G. Wilson, deceased, is offered for sale. This farm is supposed to contain 147 acres, consisting of meadow, pasture and wood-land, in desirable proportion. The dwelling-house has lately been thoroughly repaired and modernized; and is neat, convenient, comfortable and commodious. The out-buildings, though not new, are in fair condition, and entirely ample for the wants of the farm. The farm is well fenced, and has upon it a young, thrifty and bearing orchard. This is a fine opportunity for any one desiring a good home and a farm
